

Program Goals

- To provide direct instruction students with reading materials that will reinforce the skills taught in the formal lessons.
- To provide students with materials that will assist them in becoming more effective learners in a classroom environment, e.g., reading both print and handwritten materials.
- To enable corrective reading students to view themselves as “readers and writers” as they interact with a wider variety of materials.
- To form a home/school partnership through home support of the classroom programs.